

EarlyLearn NYC RFP

DEADLINE December 12, 2014

Purpose and Awards

- EarlyLearn NYC merges child care, Head Start and Universal Pre-K into a single, seamless system for children ages 6 weeks to 4 years in center and family child care settings.
- $55,738,622 for 42 contracts

Millions of dollars will be granted to eligible high-quality Early-Childhood providers to implement the EarlyLearn NYC: New York City's Early Care and Education Services Program. The Administration for Children's Services (ACS) is seeking appropriately qualified vendors to provide quality child care services, in both center-based and home-based care settings, to serve more children in targeted areas in all five boroughs of New York City. It is estimated that $55,738,622 (nearly fifty-six million dollars) will be awarded for 42 EarlyLearn contracts.

The application deadline is December 12. DON'T MISS OUT. We can complete your application by the deadline if you telephone us without delay. With our help, you can meet the deadline and maximize your chances for receiving funding. We have secured millions of dollars in funds for clients around the world, many in the Early-Childhood-Development field, including millions of dollars in EarlyLearn and UPK funding.

TO MEET THE DECEMBER 12 DEADLINE, WE MUST HEAR FROM YOU AND BEGIN YOUR APPLICATION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Recent Funding Success: We recently prepared responses to RFPs (Requests for Proposals) securing more than $55 million to support Early-Childhood-Education programs for youth in New York City day care centers. Our writers also prepared responses to RFPs securing millions of dollars for EarlyLearn and Universal Pre-Kindergarten programs in Childhood-Development facilities.

Not-For-Profit Grant Writers will prepare your response to the NYC Administration for Children's Services EarlyLearn RFP (Request for Proposals) that will lead to distribution of funds to qualifying Early-Childhood-Development providers in all five New York City boroughs.
