

21st Century Community Learning Centers, 2017-2022

$50,000 to $1.2M Per Year - RFP Deadline 11/14/2016

$430 million will be granted over five years to provide academic-enrichment services to help students who attend low-performing schools to meet NYS academic standards and to give them a broad array of youth-development and enhancement activities such as arts, music, physical fitness, service learning, health and technology education, and family engagement. The application deadline is November 14. DON'T MISS OUT. We can complete your application by the deadline if you telephone us without delay. With our help, you can meet the deadline and maximize your chances for receiving funding. We have secured millions of dollars for clients in the youth development field, including 21st Century CLC funding.

Requirements and Duration

- Vendors must provide services 90 hours per year (30 days per year for three hours per day).
- The term of the contract will be five years.
- Mandatory Letter of Intent must be received by NYS Education Department by October 31; otherwise applications will not be accepted.

TO MEET THE NOVEMBER 14 DEADLINE, WE MUST HEAR FROM YOU AND BEGIN YOUR APPLICATION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Recent Funding Success: We recently prepared responses to RFPs (Requests for Proposals) securing more than $78 million to support early-learning programs for youth in New York City day-care centers and youth-development programs. Our writers have also secured millions of dollars in 21st Century Community Learning Centers funding.

Not-For-Profit Grant Writers will prepare your response to the NYS Education Department's 21st Century Community Learning Centers RFP that will distribute funds to qualifying partnerships of non-profit and for-profit organizations and local educational agencies (LEAs).
