COMPASS - Will operate a school-year and summer youth-development program at selected public school sites for grades K to 5. Start date 7/1/2019 @ $3,516 per child.

SONYC - Will operate a school-year and summer youth-development program at selected public school sites for grades 6 to 8. Start date 7/1/2019 @ $3,792 per child.

Millions of dollars have been allocated to fund qualified nonprofit organizations to deliver high-quality, after-school and summer Out-of-School Time (OST) programs to New York City students attending selected public schools who are in the elementary and/or middle school grades, K-5 or 6-8. OST programs offer free structured activities in safe, supportive public school environments during times when children are not in school. The two programs will be located in neighborhoods throughout the city. DYCD seeks to strengthen the integration of youth-development and academic skill-building by funding effective collaborations between providers/contractors and the schools from which participants will be recruited, and to foster increased parental engagement.

DON'T MISS OUT.

We can complete your application by the deadline if you telephone us without delay. With our help, you can meet the deadline and maximize your chances for receiving funding. We have obtained millions of dollars in funds for clients in New York City and around the world, including many in the youth-development field.
